THE CARDINAL

'66

Clarence Community School Clarence, Iowa

Why so many years of schooling?
Hours of studying; not enough time
Figuring problems--thinking, thinking--
No thought of anything but schooling.

Why? To learn to fight and bomb our neighbor?
To learn to make much better guns?
Maybe even to hate our brother?
No! To make this world better.
To make our nation lead the rest--
To make it right for all of us.

Dedication

Listening carefully to the announcement of the yearbook dedication.

Receiving honors at the dedication.

Miss Ruth Reid has served the Clarence Community School for the past seventeen years. She has served as a Senior Class sponsor, High School Principal, play director, and President of the Clarence Education Association, only to mention a few. The success of the Junior-Senior Banquet and commercial knowledge of the students has also been motivated by her. There is no doubt in our minds that Miss Reid deserves to be recognized.

ELEMENTARY

Vacation is over, school has begun.
Everyone's going; it's lots of fun!
With brand-new clothes, new shoes and socks,
With a notebook new, and a pencil box
That's full of sharp pencils and crayons, too,
It's the time of year for everything
new!

In a room you never worked in before,
A nice new teacher walks in the door.
Everyone there has some news to tell,
But that can wait till the recess bell.
Quiet now, while everyone looks
At the beautiful, colorful, brand-new books.
And now every day, as the new pages
turn,
You'll always find something new to learn.

During school, time goes so slow,
It seems that school started fifty hours ago!
After awhile you feel so low,
Oh when, oh when, can we go?
On vacations and weekends though
Time goes so fast, where could it go?
That's just the way, too fast or too slow.
But never just right, as far as I know.

HIGH SCHOOL

A teenager's life is just what it seems,
A world full of hope and a world full of dreams.

It's creating ideas and making them come true;

It's wide visions of everything in view.

It's acting silly when nobody's around,
And reaching for love that cannot be found.

It's laughing and crying and having fun,
But most of all, it's being young.

ACADEMIC

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will;

When the road you're traveling seems
all uphill;

When funds are low and debts are high
And you want to smile but you have to sigh;

When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but never quit!

Life is strange with its twists and turns,

As everyone of us sometimes learns;
And many a failure turns about

When he might have won if he stuck
it out.

Stick to your task though the pace
seems slow---

You may succeed with one more blow.

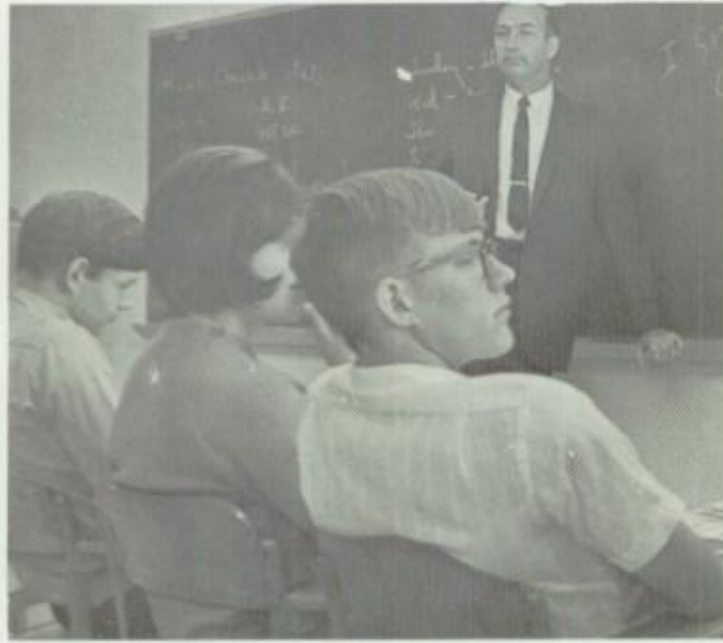

Success is failure turned inside out---

The silver tint of the clouds of doubt---
And you never can tell how close you are;

It may be near, when it seems afar.

So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit.

It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

A fold-away divider separates the English and social studies rooms. It is closed for the various classes and opened to make a large study hall.

Math Room: The bulletin board and windows are featured here. The windows were not made to open, but air conditioning provides comfort on hot(?!) days.

Social Studies Room: Built in lighting adds to the appearance of the rooms, and acoustical tile on the ceiling absorbs much of the sound.

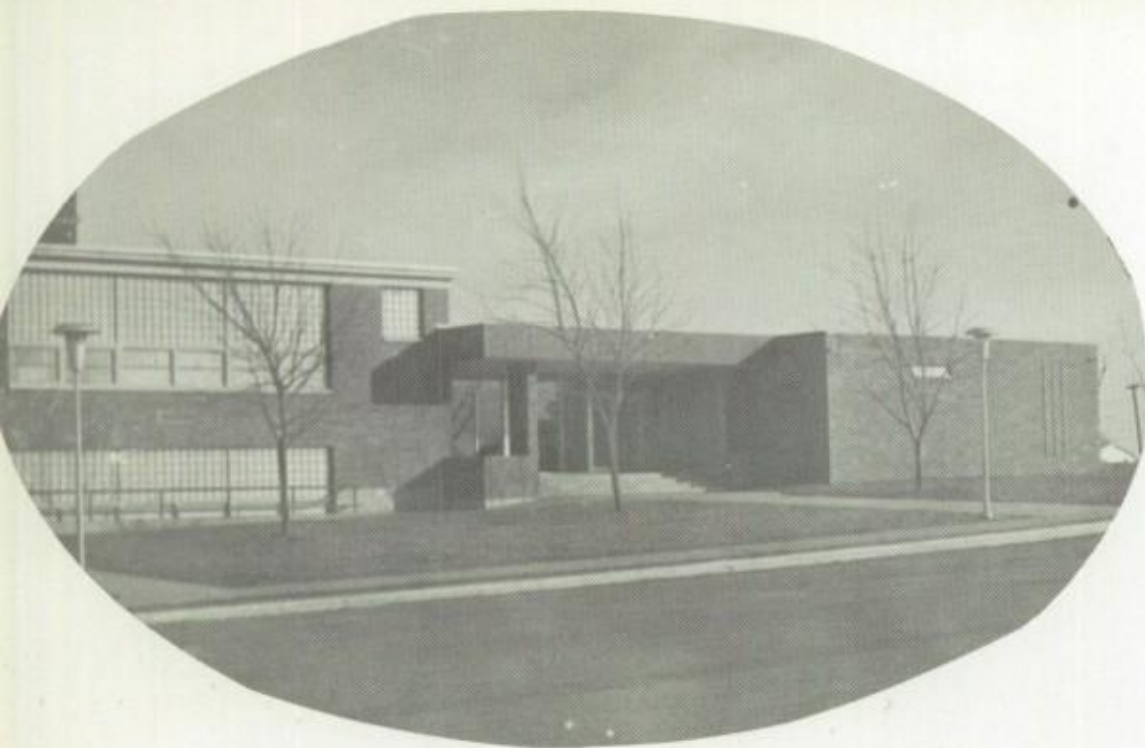

English Room: Presto! A 'bulletin board. Everything from notices to theme sentences to assignments are plastered on the wall-length black boards.

Extra parking space was gained with this lot that lies to the south of the new building.

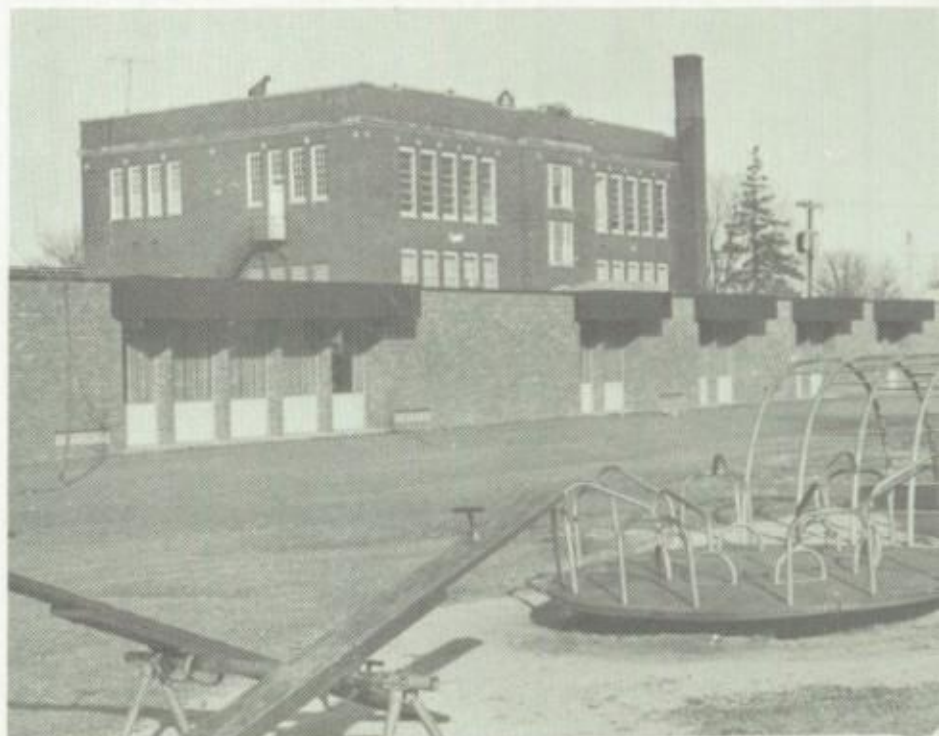

A typical noon hour scene at the Bench. The resting spot is used by students to sit and talk or do whatever students do.

The main entrance to the new addition of our school. The hard surface lot in the foreground is used as an elementary playground during the day and a parking lot for people wishing to use the library at night.

$150,000 was raised by a bond issue in the Clarence Community School district to complete the new addition.

The entrance to the carpeted library. $111,000 was contributed by the Board of Trustees of the Joe Ditz Estate for the purpose of building this library.

Lockers for our books and coats were a new experience for us with the new addition. The steps lead to the old building.

LIBRARIANS: Susan Bark, Kathy Pruess, Miss Stonerook, Peggy Curley, Jane Wallace, Joyce Collins, Janis Silkman, Sally Sanger, David Derynck, Mrs. McCoy. Not Pictured: Debbie Wulff.

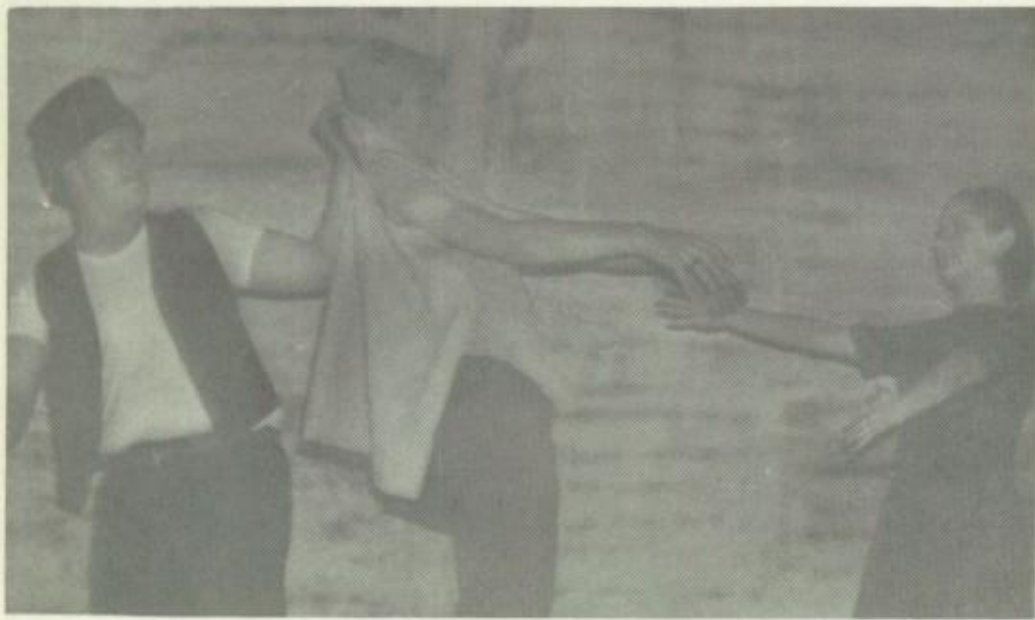

Recreational reading area in the front of the Library. Periodicals are placed on the shelves in the background. The door leads to a conference room used for meetings and student discussions.

Wednesday afternoons are reserved for Children's Story Hour in the Library. Pre-schoolers of the community see films, listen to stories, color, and are served refreshments.

The books in the Library are cataloged by author, title, and subject. A newspaper rack holds eight different newspapers for the student's use.

Hey, that's my wife!

Dramatics

Two plays were given by the Dramatics class this year. The first, a children's theatre entitled "The King's Ugly Bride," was given for the grade school students. The second, entitled "The Doctor In Spite Of Himself," was presented to the public.

Easy fellas!

Another rehearsal?

How do you like my new hair-do?

A scene from the play "The Miracle Worker," presented by a group of high school students this year, received I ratings in the district and state contests. The play is based on the life of Helen Keller. The cast included: M. Andrews, Captain Keller, D. Andrews, Kate Keller, M. Christophersen. James Keller, J. Wiebke, Helen Keller, and M. Gade, Annie Sullivan. Mr. Wuertz directed the production.

MUSIC

Little snatch of ancient song,
What has made thee live so long?
Flying on thy wings of rhyme,
Lightly down the depths of time.
Landmarks of the human mind,
One by one are left behind.
And a subtle change is wrought,
In the mould and cast of thought.
Creeds and causes that have made--
Many noble lives must fade.
And the words that thrilled of old,
Now seem hueless, dead, and cold.
Yet while thoughts, like men, all pass away,
The sound of music always stays.

"King and I"

This year our music department put on it's annual musical "The King and I". It was a Rodgers and Hammerstein II production based on a true story of the life of the King Rama IV. of Thailand. After all the practices were over we felt that it was a most rewarding production of our abilities and talents.

ATHLETICS

Time is of the essence. The rhythms break,
More varied and subtle than any kind
of dance;
Movement speeds up or lags. The ball goes out
In sharp and angular drives, or long,
slow arcs,
Comes in again controlled and under aim;
The players wheel or spurt, race,
stoop, slide, halt,
Shift imperceptibly to new positions,
Watching the signs, according to the batter,
The score, the inning. Time is of the essence.

FUTURE THOUGHTS

I think about my future
An awful lot these days.
I contemplate ideas
About my future ways.
As of now its so uncertain
What I really want to do.
A full rich life so new.
Whether it be right or wrong,
That's a chance I must take.
It's the decision of a lifetime,
This decision I must make.
